de to us in Virginia," said Governor Woodruff. "I can't see how we afe ever to show our appreciation. It was superb. We shall never forget the good time we had in Richmond."

The other members of the party spoke in similar fashion. The soldiers spoke in similar fashlon. The soldlers were delighted with the city, the people, and especially the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, which organization was their host. All the newsstands were quickly raided of to-day's Times-Dispatches with pictures of the Connecti-cut organization, and the soldiers were writing the office of the paper for copies to be sent them, at their homes.

THE VALENTINE AUCTION CO., General Auctioneers,

AT THE Richmond Bazaar

I will have for next WEDNESDAY'S SALE, OCTOBER 22D, four hundred (400) head Horses and Mules, some as smooth, both in horses and mules, as you have seen at any time this year.

The horses consist of high-class drivers, Southern chunks of as good kind as you have seen, with good flesh and quality; also some heavy draft and general purpose horses—something suituble for your own use and your customers and money-makers. Among the horses will be one carload of the best second-hand Virginia horses, we ever offered.

The Mules run in size from 900 to 1,400 pounds, smooth and good. Horses, I think, sold this week for at least 110 to $15 per head cheaper than at any time for the past year, both out West and here.

Be sure to be with us if in need, as we have a full house, and we must seal them next Wednesday to make room for our new arrivals for the next week's sales. We have both the quality and quantity, and you won't be disappointed if you come in getting what, you want.
